CALL TO ORDER

City Clerk, Debbie Wohlberg, called to order the Inaugural Meeting of the newly elected Council and welcomed everyone in attendance.

INVOCATION PRAYER

Father Cuong Luong of Notre Dame Roman Catholic Parish delivered the Invocation Prayer to Council.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS OF OFFICE

The Honourable Judge Daniel O'Hanlon thanked all those who put their names forward through the democratic process for election to Council.

He explained the changes to the legislation and the expanded form of the Oath of Office. The six councillors as a group took the Oath of Office delivered by his Honour and then individually declared before signing their Oath.

Judge O'Hanlon then administered the Oath of Office to His Worship. The Mayor took his seat and asked the members of council and the gallery to also please be seated.

His Worship Mayor R. Bater thanked all the candidates who put their name forward and congratulated those who were elected. He named a few of the more important current issues and initiatives of the City and of the upcoming budget but also alluded to the many discussions and decisions still to be made in the upcoming four year term. Mayor Bater reminded the public that meetings of Council are for the public and invited their attendance.

ADJOURNMENT

1) BE IT RESOLVED that the meeting do adjourn.

Moved by Coun. D. Buglas.
