

Playground Post: August 5, 2016

Well hello everyone! Last week was a blast at the playground but let me tell you that we are in for a blast this week!

The theme for this week is Musical Mayhem, and we have not one, but two special events for everyone to come to! The first one will be on Wednesday, August 10th at the Destination Battlefords Building. We will be going to do some bird watching and exploring! Make sure you are at your playground by 11:00 am so you will be ready to catch the bus at the Library or the Fairview playground. Our second special event is the Concert on August 12th in the park at the Library! The concert will start at 2:00pm! If you are walking with the playgrounds make sure you are there by 1:00.

I hope to see you all out at the playgrounds this week soaking up the sun and running around having fun! The Leaders have lots of fun musical games and activities planned for you! Don't forget that the parade is next week on August 15th at 7pm. Our theme this year is "Off to the Beach" so if you would like to come dressed up in your favourite beach outfits that would be awesome!

Have a great week everyone,

Jocelyne
